

Fletcher Book Advances

Your financial aid file must be processed and authorized financial aid available to receive book advance funds.

Fletcher students are not under any obligation to rent or purchase textbooks from the Fletcher Bookstore. The same textbook may also be available from an independent retailer, including an online retailer.

Financial Aid Book Advance funds for use at the Fletcher Bookstore- Requirements

Student must have been awarded, and accepted financial aid with a balance remaining for the term for which books are being purchased. (Aid must be authorized on the student's LoLA account)

- Student must have a final class schedule. Any changes to the student's schedule after receiving the book advance will be the student's responsibility.
- Book advances will be issued no earlier than seven business days prior to the first day of class.
- Tuition and fees will be paid first from the student's eligible financial aid funds and the remaining aid will be applied to book advances up to $600.00.
- Verification through Banner will be provided to the campus bookstore which enables the student to purchase books.
- There will be no cash refunds made at the campus bookstore with book advance funds.
- After crediting the student's tuition and fees and deducting the book advance funds used, students will then receive any remaining financial aid funds during the refund process after the 14th day of class through BankMobile (Options: BankMobile debit card or automatic bank deposit into checking or savings account).

Book Advance Caution

- Schedule changes or any other circumstance affecting financial aid eligibility or award amount may result in owing money back to Fletcher. Outstanding balances will limit the student's account accessibility including, but not limited to, registering for classes and receiving transcripts at any LCTCS College.